The Rhodes Scholarships themselves show how far-reaching the effects of a bequest can be.

Including the Rhodes Scholarship in Canada in your will is simple and straightforward. It is especially fitting for those who benefitted from one of the world's most remarkable bequests to include support for the Scholarships in their own bequests.

A bequest to the Rhodes Scholarships in Canada may reduce the amount of tax payable from your estate. This varies from country to country, so please seek advice from your legal or financial advisor. For more information, please visit: www.cra-arc.gc.ca

Gifts in support of the Rhodes Scholarships in Canada are now fully tax deductible for Canadian taxpayers.

Suggested wording:

For an outright bequest: I give the sum of C$________ (in figures and words) without interest, to the Rhodes Scholarships in Canada, or its successor, for its general purposes, and I declare that the receipt of the treasurer or other proper officer of such organization, or successor, shall be a sufficient discharge of my Trustees therefor.

For a residual bequest: I direct my Trustees to pay and transfer the residue of my estate to the Rhodes Scholarships in Canada, or its successor, for its general purposes, and I declare that the receipt of the treasurer or other proper officer of such organization, or successor, shall be a sufficient discharge of my Trustees therefor.
