

RHODES HOUSE

A historic Oxford venue
for the 21st Century

Since 1929, Rhodes House has been an Oxford landmark, a historic Grade II* listed venue in the heart of the city.

Today, it is home to a variety of function spaces unfolding seamlessly within the building; a blend of old and new, historic and modern, richly detailed and technologically advanced.

Our traditional dining hall and reception rooms, brand new conference centre, beautiful gardens, and 34 ensuite bedrooms create a unique backdrop for guests to collaborate and socialise.

A place to meet and enjoy

For nearly 100 years, Rhodes House has been a place for people to meet, to think, to enjoy. It is a place to come together for discussions, celebrations, delicious food and a welcoming environment.

The traditions of Oxford hospitality are alive today at Rhodes House, with a talented and experienced events team who can turn your event ideas into reality.

Rhodes House is the perfect place for your event.

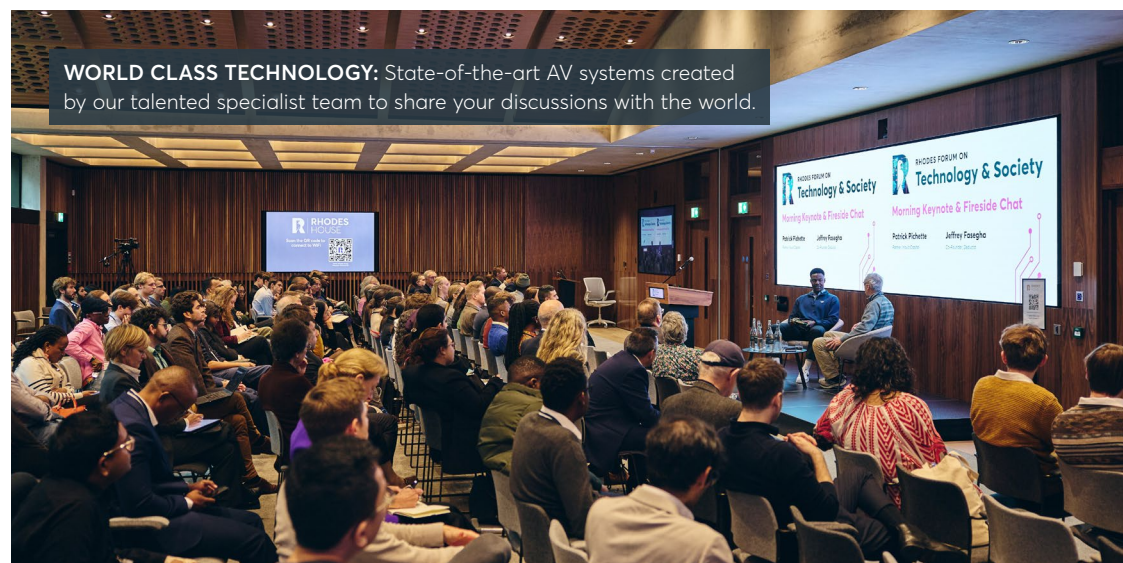

CONFERENCE SUITE: The newest conferencing facilities in Oxford with world-class connectivity.

DINING: From delicious conference catering to fine dining and banquets by our experienced and talented kitchen and waiting team.

WORLD CLASS TECHNOLOGY: State-of-the-art AV systems created by our talented specialist team to share your discussions with the world.

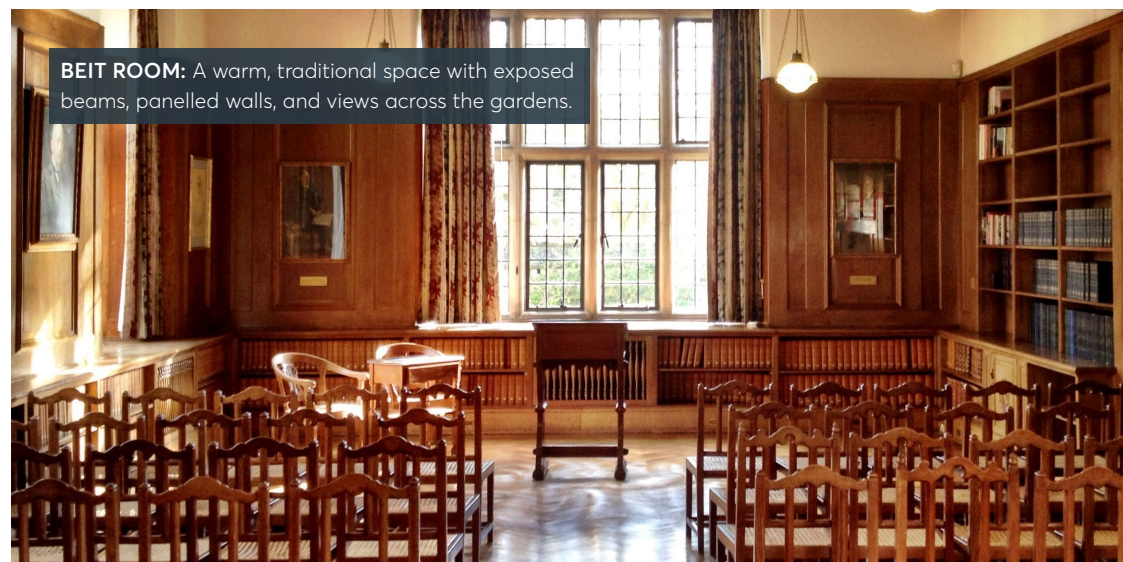

MCCALL MACBAIN HALL: The traditional place to dine – an Arts and Crafts masterpiece with spectacular artwork.

RECEPTION ROOM: A beautiful wood-panelled reception space, opening out onto the elegant gardens and courtyard.

BEIT ROOM: A warm, traditional space with exposed beams, panelled walls, and views across the gardens.

GLASS PAVILION: An award-winning jewel of a room with a vaulted ceiling and views across the grounds.

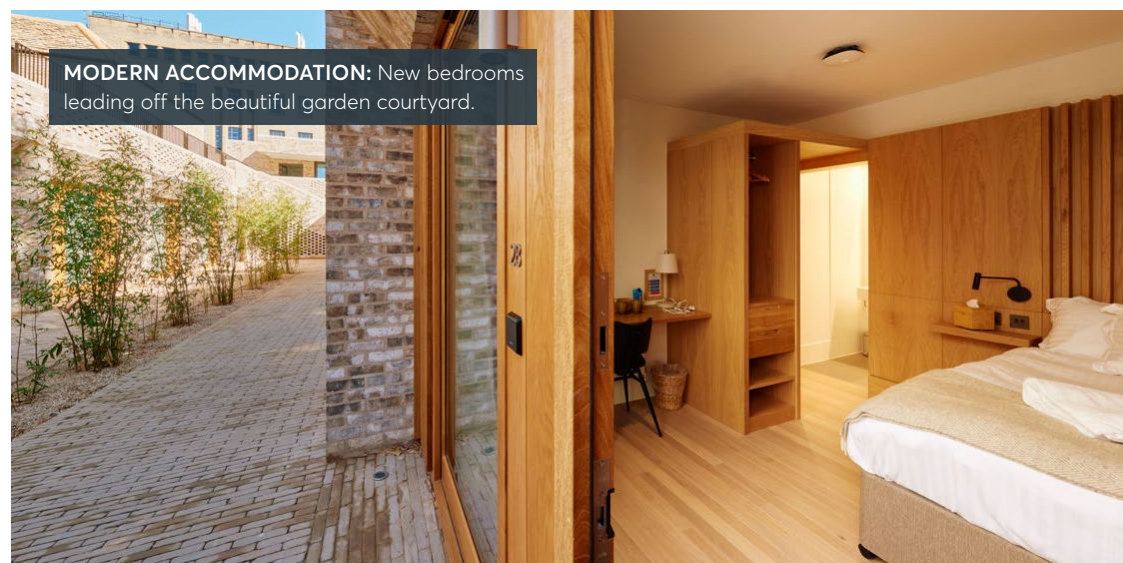

GARDENS: Lush planting by our multi-award winning head gardener Neil Wigfield provides the backdrop to our generous terraces and lawns. A peaceful oasis beyond the bustle of the city.

HISTORIC ACCOMMODATION: Beautiful original Arts and Crafts style bedrooms, freshly updated.

MODERN ACCOMMODATION: New bedrooms leading off the beautiful garden courtyard.
